

The Parish Church of St Matthew Northampton

All Saints' Sunday

Year B

All Age Mass for the Parish Family

Sunday 3rd November 2024

10.15 am

Welcome to St Matthew's Parish Church

Safeguarding St Matthew's is committed to providing a safe environment for all who come. If you have any concerns, please speak with one of our welcomers or a churchwarden who may be identified by their lanyard. They will be happy to help you.

Live streaming Please note that this service is being streamed. You may sit where you wish. If, however, you prefer not to be seen online, please sit in a side aisle. The administration of Holy Communion will not be shown.

GDPR Some of St Matthew's services (most Sunday mornings and some special services) are live-streamed or recorded for those who cannot attend church in person. Under GDPR, the church must gain the consent of anyone whose image may be captured, as this constitutes collection of "personal data". This includes clergy, readers/intercessors, musicians and congregation. Whilst every attempt is made not to capture the faces of members of the congregation, this may occasionally happen if people turn around or move around the church during the service. The exception is communion, when the congregation is not filmed. The side aisles and back of the nave are so far as possible film-free areas not covered by the camera. Any-one whose personal data is collected must give their consent. Consent forms are available both in church and on the website. The full policy can be read on our parish website or on the noticeboards in church.

Toilet and baby changing facilities may be found at the base of the church tower. There is also a small servery.

For younger children In the north aisle (nearest to Collingwood Road), a carpeted area equipped with age-specific Christian resources is provided. Please feel free to make use of these facilities.

The Feast of All Saints When a child was asked what is a saint, she replied, 'Someone who lets light in.' She was probably thinking of a stained-glass window. But in a sense, she was absolutely right. Saints are like bright lights in a dark world. Through them the light of the Gospel and the glory of the presence of God is revealed.

As we look at the lives of the saints we get glimpses of how life ought to be. The saints challenge us in our way of living: they invite us to risk and adventure. The saints challenge our way of looking at the world, our attitude to life and our priorities.

The saints reveal the love and glory of God. They share a common union with Father, Son, and Holy spirit, and in so doing are part of the Communion of Saints. We are called to be part of that Communion.

The saints we remember today are not just the great and well-known but those who have no memorials but who lived their lives revealing God's glory and their love for their fellow beings. We rejoice that the souls of the righteous are in the hands of God.

It is our custom to spend some time in quiet preparation before the liturgy begins, and save further conversation until we meet socially for refreshments afterwards. The following prayer, based on today's themes, may be found helpful:

Prayer

God, you have called us to share in the fellowship of all your saints.
Help us to do what you would have us do and to become the people that you would have us be, that we may live to reveal your love and your presence in the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Collection - 'Building a Generous Church'

Our response to God's generosity

We believe in a generous God, who longs for us to share his generosity with others. A generous life is therefore a hallmark of our faith and a testament to it, as the more generous we are, the more we reflect the generous God we believe in. Generosity is, therefore, at the heart of our faith, and our own generosity is a sure sign of our faith in action. Generosity is a spiritual gift, and we need to encourage people to seek this gift as they grow in their faith. The ministry and mission of The Church of England is largely funded through the incredible generosity of those who give to it.

* * * * *

We invite you to make a monetary offering towards the ministry and mission of St Matthew's Church. You may do so using any of the following methods:

Cash, cheques, stewardship envelopes - using the receptacle provided at the back of church. If you are a taxpayer please use the envelopes in the chairs, and fill out the details in order that our parish may also benefit from the Gift Aid (an extra 25p for every pound given) associated with your giving.

Contactless giving - using the terminal provided. Just press the button for the amount you wish to give - £5, £10, or £20, and then hold your bank card over the reader.

Giving on your smart phone - using the QR code printed below. It gives you the option of any amount, Gift Aid, and making a regular payment.

Giving online - click the donate button on the parish website or Facebook page and follow the instructions.

Your generosity is gratefully received. Thank you.

Our thanks are due to Anonymous Donor 9 who has generously financed the production of this week's service booklet.

Hymn

All FOR all the saints who from their labours rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed.
Thy name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.
*Alleluya!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear their one true light.
*Alleluya!

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
*Alleluya!

O blest communion! Fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
*Alleluya!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
*Alleluya!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest:
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.

Alleluya!

But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array:
The King of glory passes on his way.

Alleluya!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Alleluya!

The Greeting

All This is the day which the Lord has made we will rejoice and be glad in it.

The feast-day is introduced

Saying Sorry to God

When the saints lived on earth they were just like us.
They sometimes behaved badly, just like us,
and they asked God to forgive them.
Let us follow their example.

We keep silence

Confession

All Our Father God in heaven, we confess that we have failed to live in the light of your life.
We have collected wealth and possessions,
instead of storing our treasure in heaven.
We have sought acclaim and status in the eyes of others, instead of pursuing the vision of your glory.
We have been distracted by matters of little importance instead of upholding your kingdom.
Forgive our failings, set our minds on things above and fill our hearts with your everlasting love, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God's Forgiveness

Almighty God,
whose mercy endures for ever,
forgive all our sins,
pardon † our earthbound ways,
and renew our fresh vision of heaven's glory,
where he lives and reigns for ever.

All Amen.

Glory to God

All Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest.
Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest.

Music: Mass of St Thomas

The Opening Prayer

Let us pray.

God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints, inspire us to follow their example with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

¶ Hearing and Responding to the Word of God

First Reading

Reader A reading from the Revelation to John.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

'See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them;

they will be his peoples,

and God himself will be with them;

he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;

mourning and crying and pain will be no more,

for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, O Lord.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

John 11.32-44

All This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

All

GLORY to thee, O God,
For all thy saints in light,
Who nobly strove and conquered in the well-fought fight.
Their praises sing,
Who life outpoured
By fire and sword for Christ their King.

Thanks be to thee, O Lord,
For saints thy Spirit stirred
In humble paths to live thy life and speak thy word.
Unnumbered they,
Whose candles shine
To lead our footsteps after thine.

Lord God of truth and love,
'Thy kingdom come', we pray:
Give us thy grace to know thy truth and walk thy way:
That here on earth
Thy will be done,
Till saints in earth and heaven are one.

Our Prayers to God

Priest Let us join our prayers to God with those of Mary and of all the saints.

Blessed are you, Lord our God, for you have called us out of darkness into your own most marvellous light.
Grant that our lives may help to reveal your love and glory in the world.
As you have called each of us to be saints may we be worthy of our calling,

All Lord, make us to be numbered with your saints
in glory everlasting.

O Lord our God, we rejoice in the fellowship of all your saints.
We thank you for Matthew, our patron saint,
and for this church in his name.
Bless all who are striving to live godly and holy lives.
We remember in your presence all who are growing in the faith, those in Sunday schools, study groups and confirmation classes.
We pray for all who feel called to be priests, deacons or teachers of the faith.

All Lord, make us to be numbered with your saints
in glory everlasting.

We give thanks for all who have served the world in their vocation.
We pray for kings and queens, princes and rulers.
We remember Charles our king.
We ask your blessing and guidance on all who hold positions of authority or who influence the lives of others.
We pray for all who quietly give themselves in the service of the community in which they live.

All Lord, make us to be numbered with your saints
in glory everlasting.

As we give thanks for our homes and loved ones, make us aware of the quiet sacrifice and love that is often given unheeded.
We thank you for all that our parents have done for us and for any who have been benefactors in our lives.
We ask your blessing upon all who suffer from violence or neglect in their homes,
all who are discouraged and disheartened and any who lack a good example to follow.

All Lord, make us to be numbered with your saints
in glory everlasting.

We give thanks for the saints who have triumphed through suffering and have revealed your glory despite persecution and pain.
We pray for the acutely ill ...
and ask your blessing upon all who are struggling at this time.

All Lord, make us to be numbered with your saints
in glory everlasting.

We give thanks for all who have served you on earth and now are at rest in your kingdom.
We pray for friends and loved ones who are departed from us.
The recently departed ...
and those whose anniversary of death in this week ...
asking that as they shared their love with us on earth
they may know your love in eternal life.
We rejoice in the fellowship of all your saints and pray that we may share with them in your eternal kingdom.

All Lord, make us to be numbered with your saints
in glory everlasting.

Priest Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers
that we may know your peace in our hearts, and your love in our lives,
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

¶ Preparing to meet Jesus in Bread and Wine

Hymn

A monetary collection is taken. Please give as you are able using any of the ways indicated at the front of this booklet. Your generosity is much appreciated. Thank you.

The children are invited to stand either side of the altar

WHO are these like stars appearing,
These before God's throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing:
Who are all this glorious band?
Alleluya, hark! They sing, Praising loud their heavenly King.

Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed, Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand;
Whence came all this glorious band?

These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honour long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

These, like priests, have watched and waited, Offering up to Christ their will.
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night to serve him still:
Now, in God's most holy place
Blessed they stand before his face.

Offering the Gifts of Bread and Wine

Holy Father,
as the saints offer their lives for the sake of the kingdom, receive the bread and wine we offer you;
help us to serve you better,
that our journey in faith may lead us to heaven.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayer over the Bread and Wine

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

All Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Children Why is it right to give thanks and praise?
Adults Listen, and we will hear.

Lord of all life, you created the universe,
where all living things reflect your glory.
You give us this great and beautiful earth to discover and to cherish.

You give us sun and moon and star-lit sky, everything that gives us light, light for our eyes, our hearts, our minds.

You give us the example of the saints
as a sign of our calling,
to be more like you,
and in time come to greet you in heaven.

You made us all,
each wonderfully different,
to join with the angels and sing your praise:

All sing

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away,
you sent Jesus, your Son.
He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live.
Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

Children Adults

Why do we share this bread and wine?
Listen, and we will hear.

On the night before he died,
when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread.
He gave thanks, broke it and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my body, given for you.
Do this to remember me.'

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many,
for the forgiveness of sins.'

So Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life.
As you feed us with these gifts,
send your Holy Spirit, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Saviour.

Children How do we follow Jesus Christ?
Adults Listen, and we will hear.

Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended,
and all creation is gathered in your loving arms.
And now with Mary and all your saints
we give you glory,
through Jesus Christ,
in the strength of the Spirit,
today and for ever.

All Amen.

If you are able, please remain standing

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray together with Mary and all the saints
as Jesus taught us:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Act of Reception

All In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day,

(and remembering particularly my own parish ...)

I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life,
for the redemption won for us by your life, death,
and resurrection,
for the means of grace and the hope of glory.

(and particularly for the blessings given me ...)

I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion,
I pray you to come into my heart.
I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart,
my soul, and my mind.
Let nothing separate me from you;
let me serve you in this life until, by your grace,
I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace.
Amen.

All REJOICE in God's saints, today and all days!
A world without saints forgets how to praise.
Their faith in acquiring the habit of prayer,
Their depth of adoring, Lord, help us to share.

Some march with events to turn them God's way;
Some need to withdraw, the better to pray;
Some carry the gospel through fire and through flood:
Our world is their parish: their purpose is God.

Rejoice in those saints, unpraised and unknown,
Who bear someone's cross, or shoulder their own:
They shame our complaining, our comforts, our cares:
What patience in caring, what courage, is theirs!

Rejoice in God's saints, today and all days!
A world without saints forgets how to praise.
In loving, in living, they prove it is true:
The way of self-giving, Lord, leads us to you.

Te Deum Laudamus

Choir We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
 All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
 To thee all angels cry aloud,
 the heavens and all the powers therein.
 To thee cherubin and seraphin continually do cry,
 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
 Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.
 The glorious company of the apostles praise thee.
 The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise thee.
 The noble army of martyrs praise thee.
 The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee:
 the Father of an infinite majesty;

thine honourable, true and only Son;
 also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
 Thou art the King of glory, O Christ.
 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
 When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
 thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
 When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
 thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
 Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
 We believe that thou shalt come to be our judge.
 We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
 Make them to be numbered with thy saints in glory everlasting.
 O Lord, save thy people and bless thine heritage.
 Govern them and lift them up for ever.
 Day by day we magnify thee;
 and we worship thy name, ever world without end.
 Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
 O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
 O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us, as our trust is in thee.
 O Lord, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.
