The Parish Mass
with Act of Remembrance

Sunday 10th November 2024

Welcome to St Matthew's Parish Church

Safeguarding St Matthew's is committed to providing a safe environment for all who come. If you have any concerns, please speak with one of our welcomers or a churchwarden who may be identified by their lanyard. They will be happy to help you.

Live streaming Please note that this service is being streamed. You may sit where you wish. If, however, you prefer not to be seen online, please sit in a side aisle. The administration of Holy Communion will not be shown.

GDPR Some of St Matthew's services (most Sunday mornings and some special services) are live-streamed or recorded for those who cannot attend church in person. Under GDPR, the church must gain the consent of anyone whose image may be captured, as this constitutes collection of "personal data". This includes clergy, readers/intercessors, musicians and congregation. Whilst every attempt is made not to capture the faces of members of the congregation, this may occasionally happen if people turn around or move around the church during the service. The exception is communion, when the congregation is not filmed. The side aisles and back of the nave are so far as possible film-free areas not covered by the camera. Any-one whose personal data is collected must give their consent. Consent forms are available both in church and on the website. The full policy can be read on our parish website or on the noticeboards in church.

Toilet and baby changing facilities may be found at the base of the church tower. There is also a small servery.

For younger children In the north aisle (nearest to Collingwood Road), a carpeted area equipped with age-specific Christian resources is provided. Please feel free to make use of these facilities.

Collection – ‘Building a Generous Church’

Our response to God’s generosity

We believe in a generous God, who longs for us to share his generosity with others. A generous life is therefore a hallmark of our faith and a testament to it, as the more generous we are, the more we reflect the generous God we believe in. Generosity is, therefore, at the heart of our faith, and our own generosity is a sure sign of our faith in action. Generosity is a spiritual gift, and we need to encourage people to seek this gift as they grow in their faith. The ministry and mission of The Church of England is largely funded through the incredible generosity of those who give to it.

* * * * *

We invite you to make a monetary offering towards the ministry and mission of St Matthew’s Church. You may do so using any of the following methods:

Cash, cheques, stewardship envelopes - using the receptacle provided at the back of church. If you are a taxpayer please use the envelopes in the chairs, and fill out the details in order that our parish may also benefit from the Gift Aid (an extra 25p for every pound given) associated with your giving.

Contactless giving - using the terminal provided. Just press the button for the amount you wish to give - £5, £10, or £20, and then hold your bank card over the reader.

Giving on your smart phone - using the QR code printed below. It gives you the option of any amount, Gift Aid, and making a regular payment.

Giving online - click the donate button on the parish website or Facebook page and follow the instructions.

Your generosity is gratefully received. Thank you.

Our thanks are due to the donor who has generously financed the production of this week’s service booklet in remembrance of George Wright & The Kingsley Fallen.

Plainsong

† In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
All Amen.

The Greeting

Welcome in the name of Christ.
God's grace, mercy, and peace be with you
All and also with you.

Introduction

We meet in the presence of God to remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. And we commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

Prayers of Penitence

In life and in death we are with the Lord.
Let us turn to the Lord who is full of compassion and mercy,
and ask that he will forgive us our sins,
and extend his healing love upon our broken world.

Silence is kept

Confession

All Lord God,
we have sinned against you;
we have done evil in your sight.
We are sorry and repent.
Have mercy on us according to your love.
Wash away our wrongdoing and cleanse us from our sin.
Renew a right spirit within us and restore us to the joy of your salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Absolution

God, the Father of all mercies, has reconciled the world to himself through the death and resurrection of his Son, Jesus Christ, not counting our trespasses against us, but sending his Holy Spirit to shed abroad his love for us.
By the ministry of reconciliation entrusted by Christ to his Church, receive his † pardon and peace,
to stand before him in his strength alone,
this day and evermore.

All Amen.

The Collect

Let us pray.

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

¶ The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Reader A reading from the Book of Jonah.

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, 'Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.' So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, 'Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!' And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Jonah 3.1-5, 10

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Response

Choir

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble;
Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,
and though the mountains tremble in the heart of the sea;
Though the waters rage and swell, and though the mountains quake at the towering seas. Response

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place of the dwelling of the Most High.
God is in the midst of her;
therefore shall she not be removed;
God shall help her at the break of day.
The nations are in uproar and the kingdoms are shaken, but God utters his voice and the earth shall melt away.
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Response

Come and behold the works of the Lord, what destruction he has wrought upon the earth.
He makes wars to cease in all the world;
he shatters the bow and snaps the spear and burns the chariots in the fire.
'Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted in the earth.'
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Response

§ Please turn to face the Book of the Gospels

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glo - ry to you, O Lord.

The image shows a musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are written below the staff.

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, ‘The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.’

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, ‘Follow me and I will make you fish for people.’ And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Mark 1.14-20

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

(Robert) Laurence Binyon (1869-1943)

From the ambo: an older person

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.

Commemoration

Ever-living God,
we remember those whom you have gathered may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations,

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

Priest In peace let us pray to Almighty God for all who suffer as a result of war.

Intercessor Where there is war and conflict, we pray for peace and security; where there is injustice and oppression, we pray for justice and freedom; where there is hatred and distrust, we pray for harmony and understanding.

Let us pray to the Lord:
All Lord, have mercy, and give us peace.

We pray for world leaders and all who exercise influence over others, that they may act wisely and justly and seek the common good; for the United Nations and all international organizations working for justice and peace, that they may be strengthened and upheld by your presence.

Let us pray to the Lord:
All Lord, have mercy, and give us peace.

We pray for all who suffer as a result of war, in body, mind or spirit; for all who have lost their homes and possessions; for those who are hungry; and for all who have lost their livelihood and security; for those who mourn their dead, those who have lost husband or wife, children or parents, and for those who have no hope in Christ to sustain them in their grief.

Let us pray to the Lord:
All Lord, have mercy, and give us peace.

We pray for all who have died in war; those who have taken up arms; those caught up in conflicts in any way; and all innocent victims of war and violence.

Let us pray to the Lord:
All Lord, have mercy, and give us peace.

Priest Most holy God and Father, hear our prayers for all who strive for peace and all who fight for justice.
Help us, who today remember the cost of war,
to work for a better tomorrow;
and, as we commend to you lives lost in terror and conflict, bring us all, in the end, to the peace of your presence;
through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Sign of Peace

Jesus says: Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
Do not let your hearts be troubled neither let them be afraid.

All The peace of the risen Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of Christ's peace.

The Offertory

Hymn

All ETERNAL God, before whose face we stand,
Your earthly children, fashioned by your hand,
Hear and behold us, for to you alone
All hearts are open, all our longings known:
So for our world and for ourselves we pray
The gift of peace, O Lord, in this our day.

We come with grief, with thankfulness and pride,
To hold in honour those who served and died;
We bring our hurt, our loneliness and loss,
To him who hung forsaken on the cross;
Who, for our peace, our pains and sorrows bore,
And with the Father lives for evermore.

O Prince of Peace, who gave for us your life,
Look down in pity on our sin and strife.
May this remembrance move our hearts to build
A peace enduring, and a hope fulfilled,
When every flag of tyranny is furled
And wars at last shall cease in all the world.

From earth's long tale of suffering here below
We pray the fragile flower of peace may grow,
Till cloud and darkness vanish from our skies
To see the Sun of Righteousness arise.
When night is past and peace shall banish pain,
All shall be well, in God's eternal reign.

Invitation to Prayer

Pray, my brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God,
the almighty Father.

All May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord, we are united in this sacrament by the love of Jesus Christ.
Accept these gifts of bread and wine, receive our brothers and sisters into the glory of your Son,
and grant them peace,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayer

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

All Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, Lord of life, creator of heaven and earth,
to you be glory and praise for ever.

For through his death on the cross,
your Son Jesus Christ has broken the power of evil, and by his glorious resurrection has opened for us the gate of life eternal.
In him you seek the lost, restoring those whose lives have been shattered and torn apart.
In the fullness of time, he will gather all things to himself, enfolding us and all who have died in war in his undying love.

And so we pray that we who have set our hope on Christ may come to the peace of heaven, there, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven for ever praising you and singing:

Sanctus

Choir Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua.
Hosanna in excelsis. Sanctus.

*Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God of power and might.
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Holy.*

Lord, you are holy indeed, the source of all holiness;
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit, and according to your holy will,
these gifts of bread and wine may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:

Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus:

Dy-ing you de-stroyed our death, ris-ing you re-stored our life: Lord Jes- us, come in glo-ry.

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world, rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming in glory,
we celebrate this memorial of our redemption.
As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom all who share this one bread and one cup.
Welcome into your kingdom our departed brothers and sisters and all who have left this world in your friendship.
In the company of Mary, the Virgin Mother of God, of Matthew and all the saints,
may we with them praise and glorify you for ever,
through Jesus Christ our Lord;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray that the Kingdom of God may be clearly seen among us:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Jesus is the living bread which came down from heaven:
if anyone eats this bread, they will live for ever.

All Lord, give us this bread always.

Agnus Dei

The choir sing ...

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona eis requiem.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona eis requiem.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona eis requiem sempiternam.

*Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world,
grant them rest.*

*Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world,
grant them rest.*

*Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world,
grant unto them eternal rest.*

Lux aeterna

Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine, cum sanctis tuis in aeternum, quia pius es.
Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine:
et lux perpetua luceat eis.

*May light eternal shine upon them, Lord, with your saints for eternity, for you are merciful.
Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord:
and let light perpetual shine upon them.*

Music by Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924)

Invitation to Communion

Jesus said: Gather up the fragments that nothing may be lost.

All Lord, feed us with the bread of heaven.

Giving of Communion

Unless a grain of wheat falls on the ground and dies, it remains a single grain; but if it dies, it yields a rich harvest.

Baptised persons who are communicant members of other Churches are warmly invited to receive Holy Communion.

Alternatively, if you wish to receive a blessing, please bring this booklet with you as a sign.

Motet

Choir So they gave their bodies to the commonwealth, and received praise that will never die,
and a home in the minds of men.
Their story lives on without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives.

Words: from the Pericles' Funeral Oration, Athens, 431 B.C.
Music: Peter Aston (b.1938)

Spiritual Communion – for those watching at home

Act of Reception

All In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day,

(and remembering particularly my own parish ...)

I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life,
for the redemption won for us by your life, death,
and resurrection,
for the means of grace and the hope of glory.

(and particularly for the blessings given me ...)

I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion,
I pray you to come into my heart.
I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart,
my soul, and my mind.
Let nothing separate me from you;
let me serve you in this life until, by your grace,
I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace.
Amen.

Hymn

All

FAITHFUL Shepherd, feed me
In the pastures green;
Faithful Shepherd, lead me
Where thy steps are seen.

Hold me fast, and guide me
In the narrow way;
So, with thee beside me,
I shall never stray.

Daily bring me nearer
To the heavenly shore;
Make my faith grow clearer,
May I love thee more.

Hallow every pleasure,
Every gift and pain:
Be thyself my treasure,
Though none else I gain.

Day by day prepare me,
As thou seest best,
Then let angels bear me
To thy promised rest.

Words Thomas Benson Pollock (1836-1896)

Music Pastor Pastorum
Friedrich Silcher (1789-1860)

§ All sit for a period of silent reflection and thanksgiving

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray.

§ Stand

God of peace,
whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life:
look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

All

Amen.

Hymn

All

I VOW to thee, my country, all earthly things above, Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;

We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

Words Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice (1859-1918)

Commitment

Let us commit ourselves anew to the service of God and humanity:
that we may help, encourage, and comfort others,
and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

All Lord God our Father,
we pledge ourselves to serve you and all humankind,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of your name.
Guide us by your Spirit;
give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope;
and keep us faithful now and always.
Amen.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save The King.
Send him victorious
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save The King!

Melody from Thesaurus Musicus (c. 1743) arranged by Thomas Arne (1710-1778)

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign.
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save The King!

Author Unknown (c. 1745)

¶ Sending Out

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

The Blessing

to the Church, the King, the Commonwealth and to all people, peace and concord, and to us and all his servants life everlasting;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son †, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always.
All Amen.
